Re: Refund Request

Dear Sir:

This correspondence is a request for a refund of fees deducted from Deposit Account No. 19-2112 which were paid by mistake and/or in excess of the required fees. The fees at issue are listed in the table below, and, as indicated by fee code 1806, each relate to the Submission of an Information Disclosure Statement ("IDS"). Enclosed please find Deposit Account Statements also listing these fees.

It is believed that no fees are owed in connection with these IDS submissions. The Manual of Patent Examination Procedure sets forth that an information disclosure statement filed before the first action on the merits or within three months of the actual filing date will be considered as filed under 37 CFR 1.97(b) and will require neither a fee nor a statement under 37 CFR 1.97(e). MPEP §609 III.B(1) at 600-124. See 37 CFR 1.97(b). Furthermore, the Federal Regulation which sets forth the fees applicable to IDS submissions, 37 CFR 1.17(p), is only applicable to statements under 1.97(c) or (d) —not under 1.97(b).

No actions on the merits have been received in any of the applications at issue, and, as shown in the following table, each IDS was filed within three months of the actual filing date of the application. Enclosed please find copies of the IDS filing receipts which support the IDS filing dates.
